

Soaring with Social Studies: The Time is Now

Sunday, September 29 (Pre-conference clinics)

Time	Room	Topic
8:00 - 4:00	TBD - Prairie Meadows	Population Education Workshop
8:00 - 4:00	TBD - Prairie Meadows	Teaching American History Workshop
8:00 - 4:00	TBD - Prairie Meadows	National World War I Museum and Memorial Workshop
4:00 - 6:00	TBD - Prairie Meadows	Pre-Conference workshop debrief and summary writing

Monday, September 30

Time	Skinner B	Skinner C	Salon 1	Salon 2	Salon 3	Grandquist
7:30 - 8:15	Registration & Continental Breakfast
8:15 - 9:00 Breakout 1	Tools & Texts: Teaching Social Justice K-5 Leslie Pralle Osborn	Tips and Tricks to Engage Middle School Students in Social Studies Shauna Cihacek and Deb Masker	Essential thinking skills: moving from passive history to active history Rachel Hansen	National World War II Museum-Liberty and Legacy Tyler McCabe	The Purple Strand Dr. Heidi Lung	Iowa Resources Speed Dating Jennifer Cooley
9:05 - 10:05	Keynote: Dean Jacobs (Ballroom)
10:05 - 10:25	Visit Exhibitors
10:30 - 11:15 Breakout 2	NCSS Award Winning Notable SS Trade Book for Elementary Kim Heckart	Using Multimodal Text Sets to Spark Inquiry and Engagement Kelli Westmoreland	Dean Jacobs Survival of the Amazon Rainforest: threats and why it is important	Student Engagement with Iowa Public Television & PBS Digital Resources Bryan Bauer	Making Global Connections, Changing the World Leslie Pralle Osborn	Become a National Geographic Certified Educator Elaine Larson
11:20- 12:35	Lunch & Awards/NCSS President-elect (Ballroom)
12:40 - 1:35 Breakout 3	Implementing the C3 Framework with a focus on Primary Source Analysis for K3! Nicole Padilla	Encouraging an Explorer Mindset Stacey Snyder	Korea: The Ancient Roots of a Modern Capitalist Democracy Kelsey Hudson	The Iowa Anthology Project: Teaching and Learning History through Literature Phillip Jones	Blend Your Social Studies Classes with Google Classroom! Tyler Youngers	Women's Rights – 19th amendment to Today amantha Eifler Don Fett Award Winner
1:40 - 1:55	Visit Exhibitors/Snack Break
1:55 - 2:40 Breakout 4	Primary Source Resources and Lessons for Elementary Educators Jennifer Cooley	Thinking Like an Expert Meets Geo-Inquiry Julie Ullestad and Cathy Stakey	Mapping Your Way Through History! Engaging ways to integrate history and geography. Nicole Padilla	Journey 2050 Cindy Hall	Supreme Court Report John Wheeler	Using the 31st Yearbook of the NCSS "Interpreting and Teaching American History" to explore the Evolution of Our Political Parties using the C3 Framework. Dwight Herold
2:50 - 3:35 Breakout 5	Financial Literacy Through Children's Literature Glenda Seward	Breaking the Binary: Teaching the Cold War from Other Perspectives Catherine Mein	Where Do We Grow from Here? Hands-on Human Geography Lisa Millsaps	National History Day in Iowa Vania Boland	Explore the World with National Geographic's Mapping Resources for Educators Elaine Larson	We've Got Issues, Too! Technology Options for Issues-Centered Classrooms Kelli Hutt
3:45 - 4:00	Prize Drawing
4:00 - 4:45	Annual Business Meeting (Grandquist)

